WRITE SOMETHING FOR OUR YEAR BOOK. DO IT IN THE NEXT EIGHT WEEKS. GIVE IT TO BILL. WE DON'T CARE WHAT IT'S ABOUT. WE LOVE YOU FOR WHAT YOU ARE: SUPER 8 WORSHIPPERS. WRITE A MYSTERY STORY, COMPOSE A CHESS PROBLEM, OR DO AN ERUDITE PIECE OF FILM SCHOLARSHIP (ON 2ND THOUGHTS, MAKE SURE THAT YOU WRITE ABOUT FILM.). I DON'T EVEN KNOW WHY WE'RE HAVING A YEAR BOOK. GOOD LUCK. GREETINGS.

COFFEE MORNING : 14 March

It was another successful coffee morning, with some 90 members attending. Mrs Helen Hudson, Berwick, talked on 'Holland in Springtime', showing some beautiful slides of the Keukenhof Gardens and the bulb fields of Haarlem. An added bonus was a resumé of her talk last year on the Dresden Glass Flowers of Harvard. This was followed by slides of these exquisite creations.

HEADLINE

There is a whole world of amateur film-making out there, clubs that have been going for decades, obsessive film story tellers, and travel chroniclers. Thus it was that George Hannan, retired Liberal MP, barrister, ventriloquist, and Super 8 exponent visited us last month. For me, his films succeeded largely through the charisma of the impassioned raconteur. I hope to dig up a few other films from film-makers who haven't shown with us, (especially with our Festival looming up in August, so go on get to work, and be unlike the stick-insects of the wooded areas.)

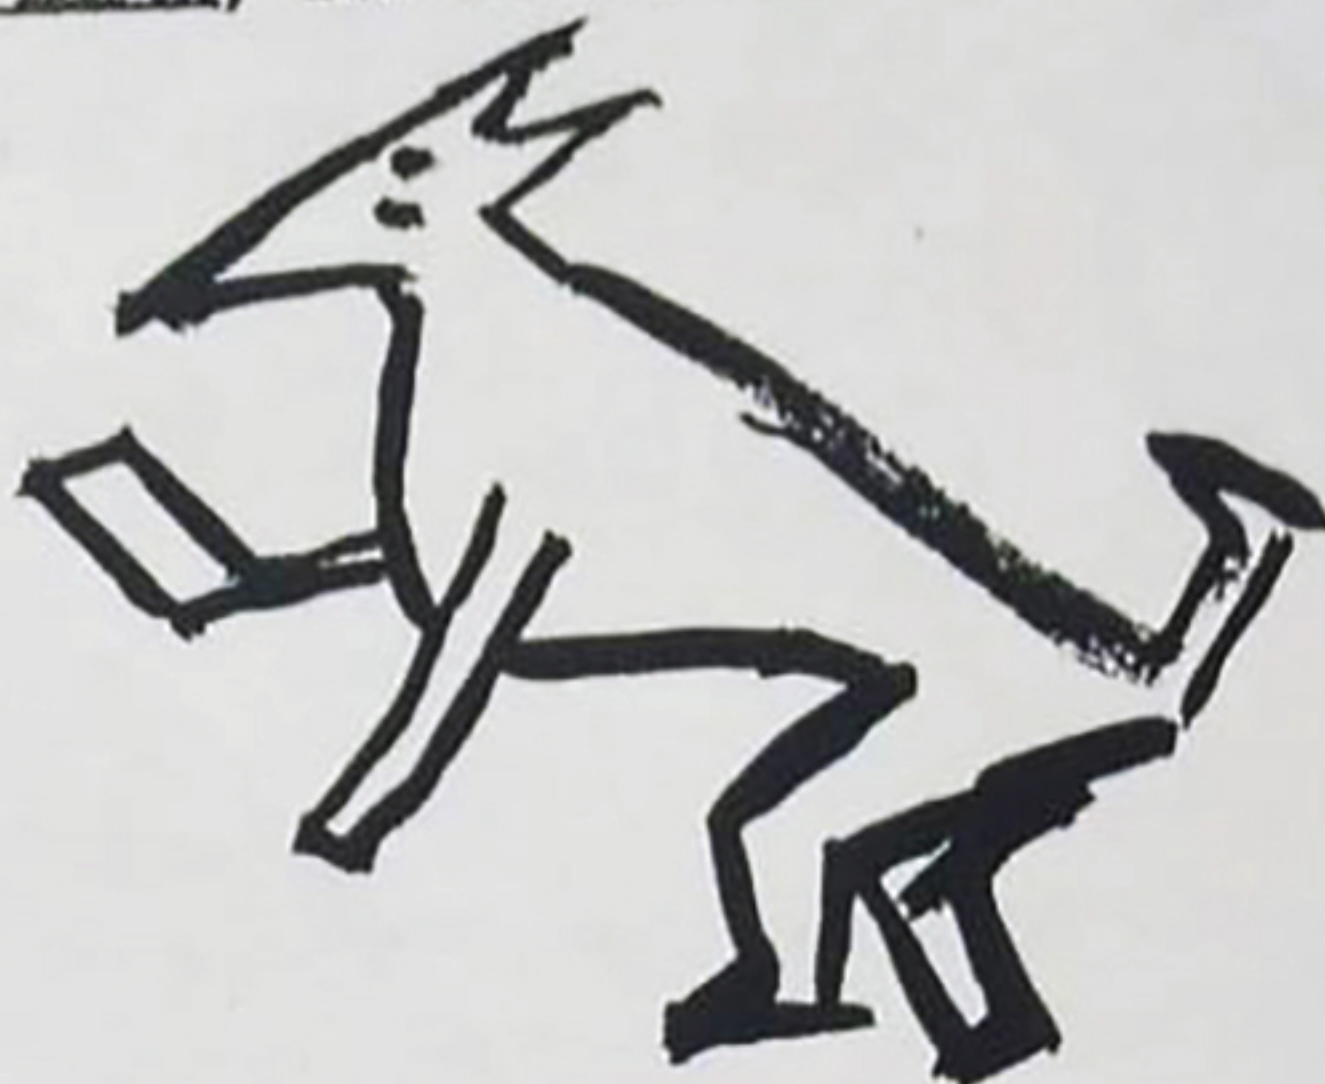

NEXT MEETING:
